

Love And Magic Entertain At Buskers

Love and Magic (Linda and Richie Pollock from Montreal) were just one of 13 acts that entertained the large crowds that gathered on Water Street Thursday for the opening of the Buskers Festival. The festival, which continues until Sunday, is part of the homecoming celebrations associated with the Credit Union ISF World Junior Softball championships. The busker acts include magicians, comedians and a mime. (Walker)