

Love & Magic At Buskers Festival

Appearing June 29 to July 2 for the International Buskers Festival will be Love & Magic.

Sponsored by the Best Western Linkletter Inn and Convention Centre, the Busker duo maintain it was love and magic at first sight when Linda, from Montreal and Richie, from New York, met. They have been married 16 years and are, by their own admission, still on their honeymoon. They have played everywhere, as well as written children's books.

plays, musicals, jingles, and they have a song list so extensive it requires a program of its own.

Smart money bets they won't have to play the same song twice all Festival. Expect wholesome fun and sing-a-longs with this multi-talented couple as they perform on the waterfront and Water Street in both afternoon and evening performances.

The Buskers Festival is sponsored by the Greater Summerside Chamber of Commerce.
